June 2, 2014

Dear Aoi,

Hi! How are you? Did you have a nice birthday? *I hope you got the book I sent you. Thank you very much for the photo that you sent. I didn't put it in my album. But I put it on the wall over my desk, so I see it every day. You're very *lucky to live in a town near the beach. My city is a long way from the sea, and I don't often go to the beach.

But I often go swimming. There's a new swimming pool about *a mile away from our house. It's open *until nine o'clock in the evening. School finishes around four, and I usually go after that in the late afternoon. Then I feel fresh and do some homework before dinner.

This September, I'm going to *college. My mother and father told me, "You must live by yourself." So, I have to cook. I'm learning how to cook now. My mother's teaching me. I'm *a little bit *worried about living alone. I hope I can do everything myself.

Now, I left the *horseback riding club. Mom's friend had a riding *accident, and now she thinks it's too *dangerous. Now I just ride my bicycle! Well, that's it for now. Write to me when you have time.

Bye for now,

Michael

X. 次の英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

I am David White from America. I am sixteen years old. On March 23, I came to Japan to study with Japanese students in high school. I have been in Japan for ten months. I am now staying with a Japanese family. I go to Yokohama West High School. This school *was founded in 1915. It is large, beautiful and old. It has about one thousand four hundred students. It is standing on a green hill and we can see the *center of the city from the school. On a fine day, we can see Mt. Fuji from here, too.

I am interested (ア) everything that I see and do at school. I have lessons in all *subjects with the students of our class every day. From Monday to Friday, I have four lessons in the morning and two lessons in the afternoon. I am very good at mathematics and English. Mr. Miyamoto is an English teacher who is liked by every student in my class. School finishes at three. All the students clean their rooms before going home every afternoon. I am a member of the tennis club. After school we usually play tennis with our friends. I leave school about six. イ It is not easy for me to speak Japanese, but ウ they always help me when I don't know *what to do.

I am having a very good time. I want エ to study and play with my Japanese friends, but I must go back to America on the fourth Sunday in March. I will never forget my teachers and friends at Yokohama West High School.
